ABOUT IDHAYA COLLEGE

Idhaya College of Arts and Science for Women is affiliated with Pondicherry University. It was established in 2004 by the Franciscan Sisters of the Immaculate Congregation. The college's motto, "Arise and Shine," reflects its mission to shape young minds into agents of positive change for a better life. Exclusively for women, the institution focuses on serving the needs of rural, backward, and marginalized women.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Computer Science was inaugurated in 2008 with one staff member and 38 students. It received affiliation from Pondicherry University the same year with a sanctioned strength of 50 students. In the academic year 2008-2009, we commenced with an initial enrollment of 38 students. The student intake was subsequently expanded to 75 in 2015 and further increased to 100 the following year. Currently, our department accommodates 298 students per year, totaling 938 graduates who have successfully completed their studies with commendable academic results.

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

1. To facilitate a platform for researchers, academicians, industry professionals, and experts to effectively present their most recent research findings, groundbreaking innovations, and closely related insights.
2. Invites high-quality papers on recent trends in computer technology. All the papers must be published in the proceedings.
